

What's up in Zone 1?

By ^{B6317} Mona Krahn

The 1993 Zone 1 Mini Games are to be held this weekend, Feb. 10th to 221st. There is available space in many sports and the Zone 1 Sports Council encourages all Zone 1 residents to register in this exciting winter event. The Mini Games are slated in "off" Sask. Games years to provide a quality level of competition similar to that of the Saskatchewan Games. They serve as a stepping stone to athletes for the Zone Playoffs next fall; athletes who hope to represent Zone 1 in Kindersley next winter.

There are many sports to choose from including badminton, bowling, cross country skiing, curling, bantam hockey, girls' hockey, speedskating, karate, and volleyball. Special Olympic sports include Bowling, Cross Country Skiing and Speedskating. Demonstration sports include Boxing, Gymnastics, Figure Skating and Wrestling. Contact the Zone 1 office at 429-2205 for more information and a technical package.

Spectators are welcome to all events - a $5.00 "button" admits you to all events and ceremonies, and can be purchased at all venues. Opening Ceremonies will begin at 7:00 p.m., Feb. 29th at the Redvers Recreation Centre.

Two more N.C.C.P. clinics have been scheduled in Zone 1: Mar. 19th, 20th and 21st in Gainsborough and Apr. 23rd, 24th and 25th in Estevan. Contact the Zone 1 office for more information or to register 429-2205.

A free beginner Synchronized Swimming Clinic will take place at the Weyburn Leisure Centre, Mar. 16th from 4:00 to 6:30 p.m. Synchro Saskatchewan's technical director, Trina Glass, will be on hand to introduce any girls or boys (preferably of maroon level of higher) to the sport of Synchro. Contact the Leisure Centre at 848-3280 for more information.