As of 5:30 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 19, the Saskatchewan Winter Games were complete. We can now add the '94 Kindersley Games to the record book of successful Saskatchewan Games.

Southeast Saskatchewan, Zone 1, was proudly represented by 180 athletes, coaches, managers and mission staff. The competition was keen and our athletes performed admirably. The Saskatchewan Games - Kindersley Corporate Board acknowledged Zone 1's sportsmanship and enthusiasm. Congratulations team for being proud ambassadors of our zone!

We had many fine performances and personal bests achieved at these Games. Congratulations to the athletes who captured medals:

Special Olympics bowling - bronze to Karen Keen of Redvers, Brenda Gailbraith of Broadview, Terri Dionne and Ron Janke of Weyburn and Mark Samenook of Estevan. They were coached and managed by Peggy Borshowa and Marie Dionne of Weyburn.

Alpine skiing - bronze to Chris Montgomery, Wapella and Erika Gulutzan of Pilot Butte. They were coached and managed by John Gordon and Susan Scott of Wapella.

Karate - bronze to Allen Stephen of Qu'Appelle; gold and bronze to Jaimie Thauberger of Qu'Appelle; and silver to Shannie Leibel, Qu'Appelle. They were coached and managed by Doug Parker and Maxine Leibel, Qu'Appelle.

Curling - bronze to the women's team of Jackie Downer, Terry Naylen, Bambi Magotiaux and Allison Darroch of Maryfield who were coached and managed by Rick Thompson and Marlene Downer of Maryfield and bronze to the men's team of Darcy McFarlane and Cory Meredith of Gainsborough and Brent Hill and Brian Wilson of Carnduff; coached by Steve Smith, Gainsborough.

Figure skating - Gold to Chandra McNabb of Estevan and Trent Hagel of Weyburn; silver to Jill Apshkrum of Moosomin, Krista Peterson of Midale, Erin Spencer and Bradley Hayward of Oxbow; bronze to Chandra McNabb of Estevan. The Zone 1 figure skating team coached by Janice Grocholski of Estevan and Ivan Hvraneck of Weyburn placed first overall.

Wrestling - bronze to Daniel Runns of Indian Head. Wrestling was coached and managed by Brian Endicott and Johann Van Eeden of Indian Head.

Cross-country skiing - bronze to Sharon Styles of Weyburn; coached and managed by Joan Scott of Indian Head and Bernie Ustupski, Estevan.

The hockey team from Wawota finished fourth; the ringette team from Pilot Butte finished sixth; the men's volleyball squad from Kennedy placed eighth and the women's volleyball team from Torquay finished fourth.

Congratulations and best wishes for continued involvement in sport to all our competitors, coaches and managers. We hope that more athletes will become involved in the Saskatchewan Games program.

If you wish more information contact the Zone 1 Sports Council office at 429-2205. Keep in mind that the next Saskatchewan Games will be Summer Games held in Moose Jaw in 1996 and the next Winter Games will be held in February of 1998.
