

Zone 8 Hosting Special Olympics In Saskatchewan

On February 12, 13 and 14, Zone 8 Special Olympics is proud to be hosting the Saskatchewan Special Olympics 1993 Winter Games in Melfort.

This competition will bring as many as 200 athletes and coaches from across the Province to Melfort to compete in the winter sports of figure skating, cross country skiing, snowshoeing, alpine skiing and speed skating.

As the official hosts of this high spirited event, zone 8 Special Olympics would like to take this opportunity to invite the citizens and corporate community of Melfort and area to extend their volunteer and financial support to this worthwhile effort.

Special Olympics seeks to improve the quality of life of persons challenged by a mental handicap by providing programs in sport, fitness and physical recreation for them to fully participate and compete in.
