

Canada Post Supporting Torch Run

13 0317

Canada Post has stepped forward as a corporate sponsor for the 1994 Torch Run, for the Special Olympics.

shirts.

Proceeds from the sale are injected into the total funds derived from the project.

Constable Serge Lalonde, of the Indian Head detachment of the R.C.M.P., is co-ordinating the program which includes two days in Indian Head.

Participants will be running Wednesday night. Thursday morning, runners will assemble at the high school for a special ceremony, then proceed along Grand Avenue for a gala send-off.

More details next week.
