

Local law officers in Torch Run

23 6314
The week of June 13-17, 1994 marks the seventh annual Law Enforcement Torch Run in support of Saskatchewan Special Olympics.

Law Enforcement Officers from across Saskatchewan take up the torch as part of the cross-province run which beings in rural regions of Saskatchewan.

The run concludes on June 17 at the Opening Ceremonies of the Special Olympics Summer Games in Yorkton.

Over 1,546 kilometers will be covered by Law Enforcement Officers during the run.

The Law Enforcement Agencies involved in the 1994 Run include Municipal Police Departments, RCMP Detachments and "F" Division, Department of Natural Resources, Military Police, Provincial and Federal Corrections.

If you wish to support this effort by making a pledge, drop by the Kelvington Detachment.
