Staff members of the Kelvington CIBC, along with RCMP members of the Kelvington detachment, served hot dogs and beverages on Friday, June 2 at an outdoor barbecue on Main Street. Proceeds from the barbecue and sales of the bank of Saskatchewan Law Enforcement Torch Run T-shirts, will go towards supporting the Special Olympics which the Torch Run itself is an essential supporting event. Pictured above are a number of elementary school students, their teachers, and members of the general public who decided to enjoy lunch in the sun, at the same time supporting this worthwhile cause.
