Law Enforcement Torch Run to cross the province for SSO

B 6317

Over 800 Law Enforcement officers from the twenty-two different Law Enforcement Agencies within the province will be taking up the Flame of Hope and running the Torch across the province for the Saskatchewan Special Olympics.

The Torch Run will start in Waskesiu on Monday, June 12 and wind its way through the province, ending in Weyburn on June 16, the site of the Saskatchewan Special Olympic Summer Games.

The Law Enforcement Officers are honouring the veterans of the wars by having the Canada Remembers logo on the sleeve of the runner

T-shirt.

For the first time in the eight year history of the Saskatchewan Law Enforcement Torch Run, the Run will be international. Several officers from North Dakota Law Enforcement will team up with the runners from the Estevan area to run and carry the Flame of Hope for Special Olympics across the border. This event will take place June 15 at the North Portal border crossing.

First leg of run starts at Portal
