

What's Up in Zone 1

B 6317

by Patti Williams, Zone 1 Sport Co-ordinator

The 1993 Zone 1 Mini Winter Games are to be held this weekend, Feb. 19-21 in Redvers. There is available space in many sports and the Zone 1 Sports Council encourages all Zone 1 residents to register in this exciting winter event. The Mini Games are slated in "off" Sask. Games years to provide a quality level of competition similar to that of the Saskatchewan Games. They serve as a stepping stone to athletes for the Zone Playoffs next fall; athletes who hope to represent Zone 1 in Kindersley next winter.

There are many sports to choose from including: badminton, bowling, cross country skiing, curling, bantam hockey, girls' hockey, speedskating, karate and volleyball. Special Olympic sports include bowling, cross country skiing and speedskating. Demonstration sports include boxing, gymnastics, figure skating and wrestling. Contact the Zone 1 Office at 429-2205 for more information and a technical package.

Spectators are welcome to all events. Opening Ceremonies will begin at 7:00 p.m., Feb. 19 at the Redvers Recreation Centre.

Two more N.C.C.P. clinics have been scheduled in Zone 1: March 19, 20, 21 in Gainsborough and April 23, 24, 25 in Estevan. Contact the Zone 1 Office at 429-2205 for more information or to register.

A free beginner Synchronized Swimming clinic will take place at the Weyburn Leisure Centre, March 16, from 4:00-6:30 p.m. Synchro Saskatchewan's technical director, Trina Glass, will be on hand to introduce any girls or boys (preferably of maroon level or higher) to the sport of Synchro. Contact the Leisure Centre at 848-3280 for more information.

Mona Krahn,
Zone 1 Co-ordinator

K: Special Olympics
K: which will be host
C: February 12th - 14th
G: These "Friends
bi: have provided cash d
cl: