The Maidstone CIBC held a hot dog sale to raise money for the RCMP Torch Run, and the Saskatchewan Special Olympics Summer Games, on June 9.

Manager Bob Nesdoly said that the Hot Dogs, Iced Tea, and Rice Krispie Cakes (made by the CIBC staff) sold very well, and the event was a great success; raising $295.32 for the Torch Run and Special Olympics. In addition to buying hot dogs, Nesdoly said that a number of people who were just walking by the CIBC also donated money or made a pledge to the torch run.

The CIBC also donated a Torch Run Sweatshirt as a prize for pledges at the hot dog sale, which was won by Charlie Chisholm.

Nesdoly said that "although this is the first time the CIBC in Maidstone has become involved in raising money for the Torch Run or Special Olympics; the success of the hot dog sale bodes well for future fund-raising for this very worthwhile cause."
