FEAST BEFORE RUN

Members of the Moose Jaw City Police, Local RCMP and 15 Wing (Canadian Forces Base) runners met at McDonalds for breakfast Friday morning. They were preparing for the annual Torch Run. Participants were also meeting 24 members of Swift Current RCMP along the Trans-Canada Highway before the run to Regina. All proceeds in the Torch Run will go to the Special Olympics. Cpl. Martin Boudreau, (left), L.S. Scott Harpell and Cpl. Fred Johnstone make sure their laces on their runners are tied before their start.
