

Torch runners raise $70,500

The Law Enforcement Torch Run campaign raised $70,500 for Special Olympics this year. The Torch run was held last week from various starting points across the province, and ending in Regina June 11. Approximately 950 officers from 26 agencies took part in the run, accumulating about 1,350 km. along the way. Moose Jaw was represented by runners from 15 Wing, the local RCMP detachment and members of Moose Jaw Police Services.
