

What's up in Zone 1

B 6317

By Mona Krahn

The 1993 Zone 1 Mini Winter Games are to be held in Redvers this weekend, Feb. 19-21. There is available space in many sports and the Zone 1 Sports Council encourages all Zone 1 residents to register in this exciting winter event.

The Mini Games are slated in "off" Sask. Games years to provide a quality level of competition similar to that of the Saskatchewan Games. They serve as a stepping stone to athletes for the Zone Playoffs new fall, athletes who hope to represent Zone 1 in Kindersley next winter.

There are many sports to choose from including badminton, bowling, cross-country skiing, curling, bantam hockey, girls' hockey, speedskating, karate, and volleyball. Special Olympic sports include bowling, cross-country skiing and speedskating. Demonstration sports include boxing, gymnastics, figure skating and wrestling. Contact the Zone 1 Office at 429-2205 for more information and a technical package.

Spectators are welcome to all events - a $5 button admits you to all events and ceremonies, and can be purchased at all venues. Opening ceremonies will begin at 7 p.m., Feb. 19 at the Redvers Recreation Centre.

Two more NCCP clinics have been scheduled in Zone 1: March 19, 20, 21 in Gainsborough and April 23, 24, 25 in Estevan. Contact the Zone 1 office for more information or to register 429-2205.

A free beginner synchronized swimming clinic will take place at the Weyburn Leisure Centre, March 16, from 4-6:30 p.m.

Contact the Leisure Centre at 848-3280 for more information.