Aylsham

By Mildred Morrow

longtime resident of Aylsham, who had lived at Pineview Lodge for the past few years. Aylsham community extends sympathy to his family.

Tim Laycock of Regina was home visiting his parents, Herb and Linda Laycock and his grandma, Margaret Peters.

Happy birthday to Peter Gray at Pineview Lodge.

Visitors at the McCallum home were Doris Chyz, Ann Jamison and Mildred Morrow.

Stewart and Esther McIntyre are leaving Aylsham to make their home in Carrot River. On behalf of the Aylsham United church Women, president Florence Wartman presented Esther with a lovely cup and saucer. Esther thanked everyone, saying Aylsham would always be home.

A memorial service was held in the Aylsham United Church Feb. 19 for Mr. McAmmond, a former
