LOST RIVER

<sup>6317</sup>
 Congratulations go out to Rody Jansen of Teddington, who, along with his parents, Henry and Anne Jansen, attended the Weyburn Special Olympics June 16-18. Rody came home with three silver medals and one bronze.

The annual Sunday School picnic, sponsored by Bethany Church, was held June 17.

Quite a number of folks attended the evening gathering at the home of Phil and Karen Brundage June 17 to honor daughter Anita on her graduation from Grade 12.

June 18 was celebrated by the Dale Neufeld family, Elkhill, by a combination Father's Day and birthday picnic at Nipawin Regional Park to help Dale celebrate his birthday. Folks attending were his immediate family, his parents, Ben and Lena, and Barb Rommel of Nipawin.

Anniversary congratulations go out to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nickel.

Abe and Margaret Teichreb of Murphy Creek spent June 15-18 at Manitou Beach, Watrous. After arriving home they were visited by Bryan and Debbie Cochran of Ratner.

June 18 saw William Harder of Nipawin as a dinner guest at the home of Gene and Richard Harder of Elkhill.

Presently visiting at the home of Al and Eva Graber of Lost River are Earl and Ruth Trekosky of Brazil, South America. They are the managers of an orphanage and program for the poor in Brazil.

A rather nasty wind and rain storm tore through parts of the Elkhill district June 18 which resulted in uprooted trees, broken branches, missing house shingles, a demolished shed and a damaged quonset door.

Walter and Justine Peters of Lost River returned home June 21 from an eight-day trip to Canoe Lake where they fished, and to Meadow Lake where they visited cousin Tina Zacharias. While at Canoe Lake they met Art and Margaret Harder and George and Martha Penner of Nipawin.

Birthday greetings for the week June 25-July 1 go out to John M. Neufeld of Dawson Creek, B.C., Meagan Klemens of Lost River, Meagni Schultz of Nipawin, Alice Teichrew of Nipawin, Tina Doerksen of Elkhill, Illa May of Edmonton, and Ruby Scott of Nipawin.

Father's Day was celebrated at the John B. Neufeld home with the families of Edward, Beverly, Leanne and Amber Ens of Codette, and Abe and Annie Ens of Murphy Creek.

John and Leona Neufeld of Lost River spent June 19-21 at Torch Trail Bible Camp.
