Some 200 Special Olympics athletes will gather in North Battleford this weekend for the Provincial Special Olympics Bowling Tournament, hosted by the Zone 7 Special Olympics organization.

Registration and kick-off for the three-day event begins tonight at the Happy Inn, says Vivian Krilow, one of the many organizers of the event.

Tomorrow, the athletes will begin their day with breakfast at McDonalds, compliments of the Zone 7 Special Olympics, before the bowling begins at the North Battleford Bowlarena.

Lunch will be served at the Knights of Columbus Hall, courtesy of the Knights, with supper that night also provided by the Knights of Columbus at their hall. Dancing will follow for the athletes and coaches.

The bowling tournament will be wrapped up Sunday morning after a pancake breakfast served at the Territorial Place Mall by the RCMP.
