

Cent - a - litre $860 for charity

The recent Cent-a-Litre Day held for Special Olympics in support of the Battlefords RCMP Law Enforcement Torch Run has netted a tidy $860.

Fourteen gas stations were involved in the project. They are: Battlefords Husky, Dewan's Petrocan, and Olde Towne Service in Battleford. In North Battleford they were: North End Mohawk, Railway Mohawk, Star Centre Esso, Energas Esso, Minute Muffler Esso, Battlefords Esso, 7-11 Esso, The Turbo, Fas Gas, Circle K Shell, and Squire Shell.

Law Enforcement Torch Run local organizer Cst. B.J. Landry said, "businesses such as these are a great asset to our community.

He added that the actual Torch Run occurs on June 14th at 8 a.m., leaving from the Battleford Town office for Lloydminster. Donations are still being taken for this event by local police and conservation officers.
