McPherson Sets Sights on Gold at National Summer Games

Tom McPherson of Outlook will represent Saskatchewan later this summer at the Canadian Special Olympics Summer Games.

Before leaving for the Maritimes, however, Tom will attend a training camp in Regina June 3 - 5 at the University of Regina to prepare for the event.

McPherson, along with 37 athletes and 12 coaches, will be among 800 Special Olympians from across Canada competing in power lifting, track, swimming, and rhythmic gymnastics.

Athletes participating in the 1994 Summer Games will be selected to represent Team Canada at the 1995 International Special Olympics Summer Games in New Haven, Connecticut. Over 1,600 athletes and 500 coaches from over 60 countries will meet for this week-long event.

McPherson is employed with Variety Place workshop and is excited to have the chance to represent his province at the national level.
