Special Olympics to pick seven reps

Seven local athletes will represent Zone 8 Prince Albert at the Saskatchewan Special Olympics in Weyburn on June 16.

The seven will be chosen from a group of 81 athletes that participated at the Special Olympics track and field provincial tryouts on the weekend in Prince Albert.

Participants at the weekend meet were from Melfort, 95 kilometres southeast of Prince Albert; Carrot River, 130 kilometres east; Tisdale, 115 kilometres southeast; Porcupine Plain, 170 kilometres southeast; Nipawin, 150 kilometres east and Prince Albert. Weyburn is 479 kilometres southeast of Prince Albert.

The 35 volunteers for the event were from the Law Enforcement Torch Run which is made up of members from Saskatchewan Penitentiary, Prince Albert Police Service, Highway Patrol, Environment and Resource Management, Prince Albert National Park Service, Prince Albert Correctional Centre and Pine Grove Correctional Center.

Organizers for the event were Pauline Steele, Cindy Hagen, Ken Belyea and Sterling Swain.

Grade 6 and 7 students from Riverside School operated the canteen at the event.
