

P6317

PASSING THE TORCH

Conservation Officer Daryl Jessop, right, hands the Special Olympics torch to Police Chief Greg McCullagh. The torch was carried by 30 runners 80 kilometres from Waskesiu to Prince Albert as part of the Law Enforcement Torch Run. Runners left the city early Thursday morning to carry the torch to Regina where The Special Olympics began Friday.

—Herald Photo