

WORKIN' AT THE CARWASH - John Kolot, volunteer, and Sherry Johnson, of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, help wash a car at the Turbo Gas station on 15th Street East and 11th Avenue. CIBC and law enforcement agency employees joined forces Thursday and washed cars with all proceeds going to the Law Enforcement Torch Run, which donates the money to Special Olympics of Saskatchewan.

- Herald photo by George Harcus

COFFEE DONATION - It's service with a smile as Esther Wolfe, of Pine Grove Correction Centre, serves coffee to Gerry Halayka at Robins Donuts, located on Second Avenue near 28th Street West. Members of law enforcement agencies helped serve coffee Thursday, with all proceeds from the day's coffee sales going towards The Law Enforcement Torch Run. The money is donated to the Special Olympics.

- Herald photo by George Harcus

Special Olympics offers trip

On Saturday afternoon Special Olympics is sponsoring a free return bus trip to Duck Lake for Glen Scrimshaw's Northcote Days.

The bus will leave at 2 p.m. from the south parking lot at Gateway Mall. The bus returns at 6 p.m.

Scrimshaw is the Saskatchewan artist who has donated a number of pieces of artwork as a fund-raiser for this weekend's Saskatchewan Special Olympics Summer Games in Prince Albert.

Scrimshaw also operates Northcote Art'N Antiques in Duck Lake.

Since seats are limited anyone interested is asked to come early.

For more information call Phil or Tim at 764-2727 or the Special Olympics Summer Games office at 764-1001.