

Special Olympics a medal harvest

^{F6317}
MELFORT — Prince Albert athletes claimed 15 medals at the 1993 Saskatchewan Special Olympics Winter Games held here Saturday.

The Zone 8 team was a force in snowshoeing and cross-country skiing, placing first and fourth respectively. In snowshoeing, Zone 8 demolished the competition, earning 136 points compared to 53 points for the second-place finishers.

In the snowshoeing events Prince Albert's Margaret Campbell led the local contingent by winning a gold, silver and bronze medal. Ruby Works garnered a silver and bronze, while Michael Pederson earned a silver and Lisa Ballantyne a bronze.

In cross-country skiing, Connie Rhodes captured two silver medals, Margaret Dreaver won a silver and a bronze and Adam Hyggen earned two bronze. Jordan Falstead also brought home a silver medal and Adrian Jones won a bronze.