

SPECIAL OLYMPICS

The Saskatchewan Special Olympic Games were held in Prince Albert on the weekend resulting in some very stiff competition, and, above all, a good time for some 240 participating athletes from the eight zones across the province. In the above photo Mrs. Selinger, left, presents the Schick Trophy to the team from Prince Albert (Zone 8) which captured top spot in the 4 by 200-metre mixed relay. Members are Richard Anderson, Donald Stapleton, Margaret Dreaver and Cathy accepts the Deborah Churchill Trophy as the top female swimmer from Alderman Rod Thomson, representing the City. At bottom right, an unidentified bowling competitor displays his delivery.

Popeil. Dreaver, second from right, was also awarded the George Reed Trophy as the top female athlete of the games. Michael Bird, also of Zone 8, was the top male athlete. In the photo at bottom left, Clara Mae Engen, of Prince Albert,

-Herald Photos.

