TORCH RUN DONATIONS

RCMP Cpl. Jon Fluker, centre, accepts donations for the Special Olympics Law Enforcement Run from Henry Yuzik, left, Correctional Service of Canada worker, who donated $60, and Frank MacGregor, Saskatchewan Penitentiary officer, who presented $1,000 from the penitentiary's ticket sales committee.

The torch run begins June 7 and continues to the opening of the Special Olympics June 11-13 in Regina. More than 21 agencies will participate in the run. Last year, the Prince Albert area torch run committee effort raised $27,000. Law enforcement agencies throughout the province raised a total of $71,000.
