

Special Athletes

L6317

Saskatchewan Special Olympics is holding a recognition night on Wednesday for its athletes who attended the World Games in New Haven, Conn.

Athletes Jim Wingert, Tammy Hilderman and Karen Yanz, along with coach Don Jeanotte, all from Regina, will be recognized before the start of the Prairie League game between the Regina Cyclones and Saskatoon Riot at Currie Field. Plans are for the athletes to throw out the first pitch. Game time is 7:05 p.m.

Wingert won three gold medals in powerlifting; Hilderman and Yanz won gold medals in rhythmic gymnastics.