

Cross-country skiers H63-77 lead Zone 2 medallists

By L-P SPORTS STAFF

Maryann Yachyshyn and Paul Lundlie, both from Zone 2 (Regina), came back with three gold medals and big smiles from the 1993 Saskatchewan Special Olympics Winter Games held Saturday in Melfort.

Yachyshyn and Lundlie won their gold medals in cross-country skiing.

Yachyshyn was first in the women's 100-metre final, the 400m and the 800m.

Lundlie placed first in the men's 100m, the 400m and the 800m.

Other double-gold medallists from Zone 2 in cross-country skiing were Donald Kernahan (100m and 400m) and Carolyn Boulding (100m and 400m).

Lyle Holowka of Regina won two gold and one silver medal in snowshoeing. He was first in the men's 100m and the 400m. He placed second in the 200m.

In speed skating, Robbie Bomboir and Robert Pisula, both from Regina, each earned a gold and silver medal. Bomboir was first in the men's 500m and second in the 300m. Pisula, competing in another section, won a gold medal in the 300m and earned a silver medal in the 500m.

Betty Zboril of Regina placed first in the women's level I figure skating event.

Approximately 100 athletes and 45 coaches from the province's eight sporting zones attended the Games.

Results in Scoreboard