

For handicapped

Special Olympics meet opens Friday

The Saskatchewan Special Olympics Society's recreation meet, for which George Reed is head coach, will be held in Regina Friday and Saturday.

The event for the physically handicapped will open with a scratch meeting at 4 p.m. Friday at the Regina Inn, followed by a swimming session at the University of Regina pool at 5:30. The bowling event will be held at the Bolodrome at 6:15.

On Saturday, track and field will be featured at Douglas Park, with opening ceremonies at 9:45 a.m. and the actual competition beginning at 10:15 a.m. Closing ceremonies will be at 2 p.m.

In the event of inclement weather, the track competition will be moved indoors to the Ritchie Sports Centre.
