

A Special Run W6317

Students from Regina and area will be running to raise money for the Saskatchewan Special Olympics.

Organizers of the fifth annual Saskatchewan Youth Relay are looking for students

— 12 to 19 years old — to collect sponsors and run in the eight-hour relay to be held at the RCMP Training Academy on June 3.

This year's goal is to raise $10,000 for the special olympics as well as awareness among Saskatchewan youth.

Anyone interested in participating in the relay should contact the Saskatchewan Special Olympics Society at 780-
