

SPORTS

Curtis Kemp is proud of what he and other coaches have accomplished with the Special Olympics powerlifting program in Regina. And he has every right to be proud since three of his lifters are off to California for a national competition. Page 22

