

Invitational Special Olympics

B6317

Ernie Friesen of Waldheim tosses another ringer during the Invitational Special Olympics Track Meet held in Rosthern last week.

Special Olympic runners are given an encouraging send-off during race events.

Gertrude Peters of Waldheim puts another one through the hoop during the ball toss at the Invitational Special Olympics, held in Rosthern last week. Clients of Valley Action Industries, Rosthern, Menno Industries and the Menno Home, Waldheim, participated in the event. Venue hosts were students from RJC.

Special Olympics running jump stars line up waiting their turn.

30 min.

Fire weather hazard levels are listed as high to extreme in the entire Northern Provincial Forest. So far this year, 158 forest fires have occurred, compared to the five-year average of 102.

agement office or by calling toll-free Firewatch number 1-800-667-9660.