Sask. skaters shine at Special Olympics

Gerry Anderson of Nipawin won a gold medal in his 100-metre category at the World Winter Games Special Olympics which concluded during the weekend in Austria. Anderson had a time of 15.17 seconds.

Saskatoon's Jennifer Williams won a silver medal in her 100-metre category with a time of 20.09 seconds, and John Wickett, also from Saskatoon, took silver his 800-metre event, with a time of two minutes, 23.14 second.

Robbie Bomboir of Regina took the silver medal in his 100-metre competition in 15.31 seconds.