

H4317

AT YOUR SERVICE: Cpl. Terry Scott of the rural RCMP rings in another donation to the Saskatchewan Special Olympics as waitress Twyla Martin looks on. Between 5 p.m. and 9 p.m. May 4. Scott and other RCMP officers waited on customers at Humpty's raising money for the Special Olympics from food sales, tips and a raffle.

(Photo by Danette Usselman)

Police help out Special Olympics

Police along with staff from Humpty's Family Restaurant teamed up to raise money for the Special Olympics recently.

Restaurant staff and police from the Swift Current Subdivision and Rural RCMP Detachment raised about $700 for the Special Olympics during the fundraiser May 4.

The police, assisted by

Humpty's staff, served meals and beverages to the public between 5 and 9 p.m.

Saskatchewan Roughrider Dave Ridgeway was also a special guest at the event, during which a raffle was held.

Raffle winner Russ Dillabough of Onoway, Alta., received a limited edition print by Bernie Brown.