

Yorkton site of 1994 Sask. Special Olympics

The 400 athletes and mission staff will be in coordinating style when they take to the field for the 1994 Saskatchewan Special Olympics being held in Yorkton June 17 to 19.

Gerry Pepler, chairman of the games, is to receive team shirts for the athletes and mission staff from the president of the Saskatchewan Television Network at a special presentation at 2:30 p.m. June 13.

The Special Olympics will include competition in swimming, track & field and horse-shoes. Weightlifting and gymnastics will appear as demonstration sports.
