

The Next 7 Days

Today B 6317

Celebrate Saskatchewan's 90th birthday with some of Weyburn's 90-year-old citizens at the Allie Griffin Art Gallery this afternoon. One hundred and twenty invitations were sent out to the Weyburn citizens who have reached 90, and the general public is welcome to celebrate with cake and coffee between 2 and 4 p.m.

The Saskatchewan Oil & Gas Show opens at the exhibition grounds. Show hours are from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Thursday

Liberal leader Lynda Haverstock will be in town for a public luncheon at the Elks Hall at noon.

The last day of the Oil & Gas Show. Show hours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Friday

The Special Olympics Summer Games get underway today, with a Torch Run arriving to kick off the games at the opening ceremonies, to be held at the exhibition grounds.

Saturday

The Crocus Golf Classic begins.

The Special Olympic events run throughout the day, and are free of charge to the public.

Sunday

It's Father's Day — Give your dear Dad a hug and let him relax today!

Tuesday

Weyburn and Area Attention Deficit Support Group will meet at the Family Place, 28 Fourth Street, at 7 p.m. The meeting is open to the public.

The Weyburn Special Care Home is holding a vintage car meet to mark Father's Day, followed by a beer-and-pizza lunch.

Wednesday

The Canadian Cancer Society's Longest Day of Golf begins at 4:30 a.m. and ends at 9:30 p.m.

The Sr. Beavers play at Tom Laing Park at 7 p.m.