

B 6317

Torch bearer

Review photo — Glenn Froh

Taking a break in front of Weyburn's city hall, local Special Olympic athlete Reinhard Eisbrenner clutches the torch passed from police runner to police runner from Estevan to Weyburn last week on its way to Regina for the provincial summer games. Law enforcement personnel from the southeast part of the province — including Weyburn city police, RCMP and conservation officers — raised $7,500 of the provincial total of $70 designated for the mentally handicapped in this year's torch run.