Members of the Weyburn Lions Community Band will make a final performance before they break for the summer months.

Band co-organizer Doug Dreis told the Review the group will perform for the closing of the 1995 Special Olympic Summer Games on June 17.

The band will play a couple of pieces of music for the event, hosted here locally, and then will break for the summer, reconvening, he said, on September 11 for the regular 1995-96 season.

Mr. Dreis described the first season of the band as a good one considering it started in the fall of 1994. The band met each Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Weyburn Comprehensive School.

He said the band is continuing to look for more players to join the group who performed recently at the Farm, Home and Leisure Show.

Those interested in joining the band should contact either Mr. Dreis, Rod Stafford or Ken LeBlanc.
