

Clergy and Special O connect in fund raiser

H6317
Members of the Weyburn Ministerial Association and the Zone 1 Dragons will connect next Wednesday in a floor hockey match for a good cause.

The event brings Special Olympians and ministers and pastors of Weyburn churches together in a good-natured game of floor hockey to raise funds to help Weyburn host the provincial Special Olympic Summer Games.

The event takes place at the Weyburn Junior High School gymnasium beginning at 7 p.m. on May 10.

Coaching the Zone 1 Dragons for the event is Lynn McKay. A longstanding supporter of Special Olympics in the city, Ms. McKay is optimistic about the event.

"We're going to have a good time," she said.

Weyburn Review reporter Kent Horsman will be coaching the Clergy Connection.

"We're looking to have a good time playing against the Special Olympians," he said. "I look forward to the game with the Dragons."

Tickets for the event will be sold at the door for $3. Children 12 and under will be admitted for free.
