

Zone 1 Winter Games still

have openings

With the start of the Zone 1 Saskatchewan Winter Games in Redvers less than two weeks away, Games organizers still have openings in most events.

The Games, which are a spin off from the Saskatchewan Winter Games to be held in Kindersley next year, are open to anyone living in the Zone 1 area regardless of skill level or experience. The events include Bowling and Special Olympic Bowling, Badminton, Bantam Hockey, Cross Country Skiing and Special O Skiing, Curling, Karate, Speed Skating and Volleyball. Also taking place on the weekend of the 19th-21st of February in conjunction with the Games will be demonstrations in Gymnastics, Wrestling and Figure Skating, as well as the Opening and Closing Ceremonies, a Pancake Breakfast and a Cabaret.
