

SUPER STARS LEND SUPPORT TO SPECIAL OLYMPICS

"You can call me George," he said and from that moment on they were friends. Greg Bottomly, left, and George Reed, discussed everything from a football play, to the special olympics. Honorary head coach,

Reed was one of the superstars attending the special olympics held at Yorkton this weekend. Athletes from eight participating zones competed in the events which included bowling, swimming and track and field. Points were accumulated for each event leading to the top score of 446 for Regina. Yorkton athletes placed fourth in the events with 259 points.

—Enterprise Photo